NCAA Compliance at Illinois Wesleyan University Compliance Responsibilities of IWU College Staff and Student Athletes

NCAA bylaw 2.8.1 states that each institution shall comply with all regulations of the Association in the conduct of its intercollegiate athletics programs. It shall monitor its programs to assure compliance and to identify and report to the Association instances in which compliance has not been achieved. In any such instances, the institution shall cooperate fully with the Association and shall take appropriate corrective actions. Members of an institutions staff, student-athletes, and other individuals and groups representing the institutions athletic interests shall comply with the applicable Association rules, and the member institution shall be responsible for such compliance.

“Rules of Thumb”

For Boosters – You may not do anything for prospective or enrolled student-athletes without specific authorization from the IWU Athletic Director. If a student-athlete accepts any benefits based on his or her special consideration as an athlete or because of athletic skill, the student-athlete may lose all eligibility for intercollegiate athletic participation.

For Student-Athletes – If someone wants to take you out to dinner or buy something for you - if you have any feeling that it is because you are an Illinois Wesleyan athlete - refuse or check it out in advance with your coach, the Athletic Director, or the Faculty Athletic Representative.
