

Student Senate Resolution 2006-1: Study Abroad Tuition Policy

Whereas, studying abroad is encouraged by Illinois Wesleyan University's Mission Statement and is emphasized by the administration; and

Whereas, information regarding the study abroad tuition policy was presented to prospective students during the college selection process by university offices, such as Study Abroad and Admissions; and

Whereas, current students have indicated that the previous study abroad tuition policy influenced their decision to choose Illinois Wesleyan University; and

Whereas, it is unreasonable to change the conditions upon which students are able to study abroad after they have matriculated to Illinois Wesleyan University; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Illinois Wesleyan University Student Senate recommends that the change in study abroad tuition policy not affect current Illinois Wesleyan University students, but instead begin with the class of 2011.
